

Northeast Kingdom Human Services

NKHS provides responsive and efficient community-based, consumer-sensitive, mental health, substance abuse, and developmental services to the residents of the Northeast Kingdom. NKHS provides these services around the clock to residents of the Northeast Kingdom through contracts with the State of Vermont. The agency's staff of professional is dedicated to helping people recover from devastating mental illness and alcohol and drug abuse. NKHS professionals also help people with developmental disabilities to lead normal lives and to be contributing members of their communities.

The agency also serves schools, businesses and individuals independently of the State of Vermont.

We encourage consumers to know their rights, to ask questions and make suggestions about their treatment or their family member's treatment. In the event you are not satisfied with your treatment or the services you are receiving, we urge you, your family, or an advocate of your choice to contact us.
